

from previous page

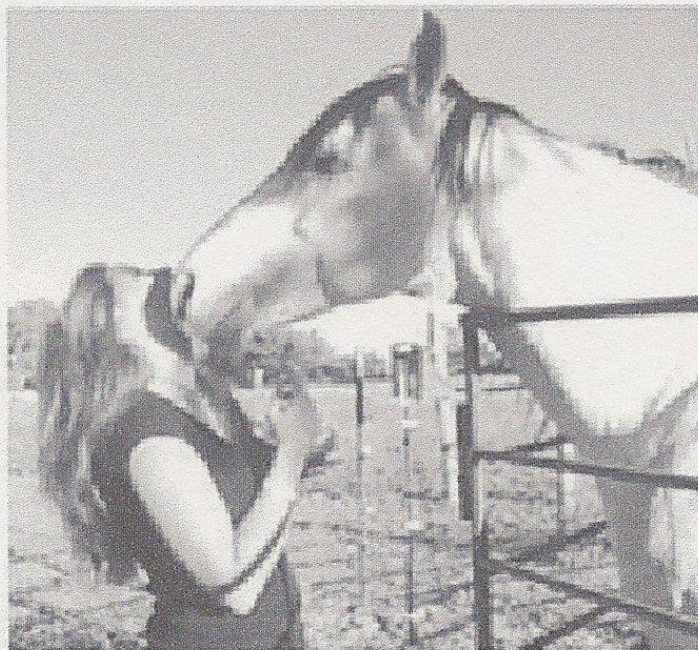

been given. You probably think that I am going to say that I have a gift or talent with horses, right? Well, although I love them, I do not believe that I have a special talent or gift with horses. I do feel however, that horses are a vessel/portal that allows me to reach others with my gift. I actually believe that my gift is a big mouth! That's right! I said, "A BIG MOUTH!" I suppose the politically correct way to say that would be to say that I have been blessed with the gift of speaking. Ha-Ha! I love to talk! And, even better, I love to talk about God! Therefore, I utilize my passion for horses as a portal to put my BIG MOUTH to work! What is your gift? Are you utilizing YOUR GIFT to serve God?

Now about what I do

I love horses! I love training horses. I love feeding horses, caring for them, raising them and more than anything, I love to teach others about them! I have trained horses for the public for more than 15 years. They have always been and I believe, always will be a part of my life. Horses are not a hobby to me, or simply an income, they are my passion. There's more! I also love Ministry! So, I have combined the two and here we are! I train horses, give lessons and I also hold clinics throughout the United States. I have implemented Ministry into my clinics. If a clinic day falls on a Sunday, rest assured that you will not miss church service. I, like you, have many goals. However, my ultimate goal in this life is to provide testimony and ministry while sharing my experiences and knowledge of horses to all who are willing to listen.

Remember that YOU can reach others through that which God has given you. Be it horses or another passion, gift or talent!

Thank you for taking the time to read this and please enjoy your visit at www.RidingWithFaith.com
Happy Trails and God Bless
Traci Pratt